State of Indiana, County of Allen

Before the Board of Public Works of the City of Fort Wayne.

In the Matter of the opening of Allegin Street from Winter Street to Walton Avenue

James Reilly remonstrates against the opening of said Street and the assessment of benefits, on the following grounds to-wit:

(1) Because the assessments of benefits are too high

(2) Because said real estate is not benefited by the opening of said Street.

(3) Because said real estate is damaged $1000 in excess of the benefit.

(4) Because the opening of said said Street is not of public utility.

(5) Because damages sustained by the opening of said Street to said real ~~is~~ Estate are $1000 in excess of benefits and the same have not been assessed to the same.

(6) Because said Board of Public Works has no right, power or authority to order said Street opened to assess ~~against~~ the same.

(7) Because the notice to this remonstrant is defective, not having been served as required by law.

In the matter of } Before the Board
the opening of } of Public Works
Alley or street } of Ft Wayne

Comes now Bridget A Reilly and remonstrates against the above proceeding:
1st Because the south 35 ft of lot forty nine in Lillies addition will be damages in the sum of ten thousand dollars instead of $1650

2nd Because said lot will be damages in the sum of two thousand dollars

3rd Because the damages flowing from said proceeding exceed the benefits to result therefrom

4th Because the board has no power to order said improvement

5th Because a number of property owners affected thereby have not been notified & considered in the report herein.

6th That no notice was served on the owner of lot 13 in Lillies Addition to said City wherefore
